🔪 Scams & Safety

Medium risk. Pickpocket hotspots: Duomo square, Galleria, metro lines M1/M3, Centrale station. Keep bags zipped, wallets in front pockets. ⚠ Fake charity petitions — people ask you to sign for "deaf" charities, then demand €10-20. Ignore and keep walking. ⚠ Bracelet scams — someone ties a "friendship bracelet" on your wrist, demands payment. Shake them off firmly.

Medium-high risk. Pickpocket hotspots: Duomo square, Santa Croce, Mercato Centrale, packed museums. ⚠ "Free" friendship bracelets — aggressive bracelet sellers near Santa Croce and Duomo. Shake hands off, walk fast. ⚠ Gold scam — pickpocket supposedly drops a gold ring and "finds" it. ⚡ Scams & Safety

HIGH scam risk. Rome has Europe's highest concentration of tourist scams. ⚠ Vatican "ticket touts" — only use tickets.museivaticani.va. Staff and official-looking vendors at entrance are scammers selling fake tickets. ⚠ Gladiator photo — costumed gladiators at Colosseum charge €20-50 per photo. Have your own camera avoid. ⚠ "Free" rose — someone gives you a rose, then demands payment. Push it back. ⚠ Roman Forum queue helpers — insist they work for the government and can "skip the line" for €50. Colosseum ticket already covers Forum+Palatine. ⚠ Restaurant menu scams — check if service charge (coperto) is listed. Avoid restaurants with photos in menu (tourist traps). ⚠ Pickpocket hotspots: Metro line A (Termini → Ottaviano for Vatican), Trevi Fountain, Piazza Navona, packed buses.

⚠ Critical Notes & Scams

- ☐ Last Supper booking scam: Only use cenacolovinciano.vivaticket.it (official). There are dozens of fake reseller sites charging €50-100. Official price is €15. Sep-Dec 2026 quarterly release ~late Jun/Jul. Check Wednesdays at 12:00 Italian time for extra ticket releases.
- ☐ Italian pickpocketing — THE RULES: (1) Front pockets or zip pockets only in crowds. (2) Backpack zipped + worn in FRONT on metro. (3) Phone never in back pocket. (4) Watch bags LEFT ON FLOOR at restaurants — thieves pull through tablecloths. (5) Colosseum/Vatican/Trevi are the prime hotspots — be alert there.
- ☐ Papal Blessing scam at Vatican: Scammers sell "specially blessed" rosaries and papal certificates for €20-50. Official Vatican shop: free or minimal cost. Buy souvenirs inside the Vatican stores only.
- ⚠ CT stations: NO left luggage lockers anywhere in Cinque Terre. Confirm with Monterosso hotel that early bag drop or luggage storage is available.
- ⚠ Siena bus 131R: Arrive at bus stop 10 min early — buses fill up and run irregularly in late afternoon. Regional train via Empoli is a reliable backup.
- ⚠ Borghese Gallery: Arrive 14:40 for 15:00 slot. NO late entry. Strict 2-hour limit, max 360 people per slot. Book Jul-Aug 2026.
- ⚠ St. Peter's Dome (Oct hours): Opens 07:30, closes 17:00 — NOT 07:00-18:00 as many travel sites say.
- ⚠ Duomo Florence dress code: Shoulders and knees must be covered. No flip-flops. This applies to ALL Italian churches including St. Peter's.
- ⚠ Dinner reservations: Zurich Niederdorf, Milan Navigli, Florence Oltrarno, Rome Trastevere — all need advance booking for dinner.
- ⚠ INSIDE FIVE: No front desk. Must register 24h before arrival and upload passport photo. Contact property directly.
- ⚠ Last Supper 15 min: You get exactly 15 minutes in the refectory. Groups of 30-40 max enter every 15 min. Be early, stay focused.
- ⚠ Vatican Museums Sun: Closed every Sunday (except last Sun of month — Oct 25, not our date). Our visit is Fri Oct 9 — correct.
- ☐ Coffee tip: Italian espresso is drunk standing at the bar — costs €1-2. Sitting at a table costs €4-7. Save money at the bar.
- ☐ Italian aperitivo trick: Buy a drink (€8-12) in Navigli (Milan) or Trastevere (Rome) and get access to a free buffet that can serve as dinner.
- ☐ Swiss supermarkets: Coop and Migros offer excellent ready meals for ~CHF 5-8. Great for budget lunches.
